Re: Federal Lobbying Retainer

Dear Ms. Chambers:

This letter shall serve as a retainer agreement (Agreement) between Unipac America, Inc. (Unipac) and Davidoff Hutcher & Citron LLP (DHC) for consulting services and government relations representation before the United States Congress, the Executive Branch, and departments and agencies of the Federal government.

The period of this agreement shall be for a 12-month term commencing on May 1, 2021 and concluding on April 31, 2022 for a fee of $17,500 per month. Either party may cancel this agreement for any reason upon giving fifteen (15) days written notice to the other party.

Expenses and disbursements incidental to our representation will be billed separately. Billable expenses may include, but are not limited to, messenger fees, transportation, filing fees, telephone calls, photocopying, travel, accommodations, and lodging, etc. Billable expenses must be reasonable in relation to the engagement.

It is understood that the fees paid to DHC are not contingent upon success in achievement of favorable results of the services provided, and that they do not include litigation or formal appearances at administrative hearings, proceedings, or formal reviews which are in the nature of a court proceeding or an official administrative appeal. The State of New York has recently adopted a Fee Dispute Resolution Program that provides for informal and expeditious resolution of fee disputes between attorneys and clients. Among other things, that program permits a client under some circumstances to demand that a fee disputed be arbitrated. We will provide the necessary information concerning this program in the event of a dispute concerning our fee, or at your request.

In connection with this engagement, DHC will file all documents related to Unipac required by the Secretary of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives, and the Foreign Agent Registration Act (FARA).

Business Ethics, Facilitation Payments, Anti-Corruption, and Anti-Money Laundering

Unipac and DHC each agree and undertake to the other that in connection with this Agreement, they will each respectively act with proper business ethics and comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, decrees and/or official government orders of the United States of America relating to anti-bribery, anti-corruption and anti-money laundering. Unipac and DHC also agree that they shall each respectively take no action which would subject the other to fines or penalties under such laws, regulations, rules, or requirements.

Unipac and DHC each represent, warrant and undertake to the other that they shall not, directly or indirectly:

1. pay, offer, give, or promise to pay, or authorize the payment of any monies or the transfer of any financial or other advantage or other things of value to:
 - (a) a government official or an officer or employee of the United States Congress, the Executive Branch, or departments or agencies of the Federal government;
 - (b) any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of the United States Congress, the Executive Branch, or departments or agencies of the Federal government;
 - (c) any political party or official thereof or any candidate for political office, or their employee(s) or agent(s)/representative(s);
 - (d) any other person, individual, or entity at the suggestion, request, direction, or for the benefit of any of the above-described persons and entities, or
2. engage in other acts or transactions in each case if this is in violation of, or inconsistent with, any applicable anti-bribery or anti-money laundering legislation of the United States.

DHC expressly represents and warrants to Unipac that it will not make any payments or give anything of value to officials, officers, or employees of the United States Congress, the Executive Branch, or departments or agencies of the Federal government, in connection with this Agreement which would be inconsistent with or contravene any United States legislation.

Unipac or DHC may terminate the Agreement forthwith upon written notice to the other at any time, if in its reasonable judgment the other is in breach of any of the above representations, warranties, or undertakings.

Unipac Handbook

DHC agrees that all applicable employees providing consulting services and government relations representation on behalf of Unipac have read or will read Unipac's Compliance Handbook before providing any such services and will comply with said Compliance Handbook, incorporated by reference herein.

If the above is in accordance with your understanding, please sign and return. Thank you for your confidence in our firm.

Sincerely,

Jonathan McCollum

Agreed to and Accepted:
